FAYTENE KRYSTOW

Faytene Krystow is director of MY Canada. She has taken as mission to motivate young people to confront the anti-life culture of today. Faytene is a vibrant young woman with an exceptional ability to release both passion and action within her generation to "stand on guard" for Canada and its traditional Christian foundations. Described as a modern-day Joan of Arc, she has ministered on inner-city streets and established multiple ministry outreaches to serve the poor, homeless and drug addicted. She has become a highly respected lobbyist on Parliament Hill.
